PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Greensboro, N. C., March 15, 1900.

To the Stockholders of the Guilford Battle Ground Company:

Gentlemen:—On nearly the fifteenth year of our organization, it is my pleasure to report to you the condition of our affairs, and I am glad to say that it seems satisfactory.

As you are well aware, my health has been very feeble the past year, and I have not been able to be present on the grounds as often as I desired, but I do not think that much has gone amiss.

I have had some worry and trouble with our keeper, but I have now finally discharged him, and Mr. John Jerrold has moved to the Battle Ground, and has taken charge of the property. I have every reason to believe that he will suit us He is a practical painter and is willing to do some painting for us, which is much needed, without further charge, if we furnish the paint, and I hope we shall embrace the opportunity.

The restaurant building, formerly belonging to Mr. James H. West, and which cost, with equipments, four hundred dollars, has been purchased by the company for two hundred cash, and I have been enabled without further cost to put a few necessary repairs on it. Its annual rent for the Fourth of July celebrations is fifty dollars.

We have also purchased two new telephones, which are said to be very fine, and such has been our experience. We purchased them at the low price of twenty-two dollars, and so far they have given entire satisfaction.

The government of the United States passed a statute, giving to corporations like ours, a cannon, which was not in use and through the efforts of Hon. Jas. E. Boyd, we have procured a hand somethree-inch rifle cannon, and by the kindness of Mr. Thomas Woodroffe, one of our patriotic directors, we have been enabled to mount the gun on two large dressed granite blocks; and now it is a real beauty to look upon.

I succeeded last year in sowing our open grounds, (except five acres, which was in corn), in orchard grass and clover, and have reaped from it a most abundant crop of clover, and it bids fair to make the premises green and attractive this spring and summer.

I have raised corn and provender supply sufficient for our horse. This was from five acres which we fertilized with stable manure.

Our springs will all be in order for the Fourth of July very soon. Only one was defective, the water being broken out below, but it is now being repaired, and put in fine condition, at the cost of only a few dollars.

The grounds are in fine condition now for a celebration, and I earnestly recommend that we renew our zeal in that direction. We gave way last year, (our only omission) for the gala week, and we trust that the citizens of our flourishing little city will meet us this year with prompt and liberal hands, as usual. None of the attractions around our city must be neglected if we desire to keep abreast of the times. The eyes of many people are looking towards Greensboro, and judging from our museum register, almost every stranger who visits the city comes out to see the battle ground and its monuments, which are the fruit of our noble enterprise.

I wish, also, to add that Vice-President Finley, of the Southern Railway, has written us several letters, proposing to do all that the C. F. & Y. V. did during the management of Captain Fry, and has expressed the earnest desire that we should not omit our celebration this year.

I have no doubt that Mr. Finley will do all for us that his railroad can in furtherance of our celebration.

There is not (and cannot be for historical reasons) and other such grounds in the state, and all intelligent persons, who have studied the results of the battle here in 1781, can truthfully and confidently say here was American independence really won—subsequent events were only the natural sequences of this battle.

I congratulate you, gentlemen, on the noble work which you have done, and it will be a monument to your fame as long as granite and bronze shall last, or liberty in America shall be the heritage of our common country.

D. Schenck,
Pres. G. B. G. Co.

The sentiment for the celebration this year was very marked among the members. Indeed it went further than this. Some members thought the company ought to pass a resolution saying that the celebration shou'd never be put off for anything whatever, but this however, was not pressed.

One fact that should be observed is that every dollar used in the annual celebation is contributed by the people of Greensboro. While it may justly be of state importance the outside is never called upon to contribute.

Judge Schenck says he thinks that every state in the union except perhaps one or two of the extreme western ones is represented in the register of visitors at the battle ground park.

It was remarked that it had rained on every annual meeting day since the company was organized fifteen years ago, but had never rained on any celebration day, July 4th.

CHASING GERMAN STEAMSHIP

British Man of War After Boer Commissioners.

THEY ARE ON THE KAISER.

Great Excitement in London—Boer Forces in a Trap—President Steyn Ready to Surrender.

London March 16—News comes from Lorenzo Marquez that the British man of war Thetis is chasing the German steamship Kaiser and may take off the Boer Commissioners Abram Fisher and A. D. Wolmorous. It has caused great excitement here.

Boer forces operating in northern Cape Colony are in a trap. The British are hurrying to hem in the Burghers and crush them at one blow. With Gatacre on the front at Bethula, Clements on the right at Norvel's point, Brabant on their left, they are retreating towards Bloemfontein, while 2,000 English guardsmen are rushing from Bloemfoutein to cut them off.

Mafeking, March 16—The garrison continues cheerful in spite of short rations and disappointment at the failure of the relief expedition to reach here. The health of the garrison and non contestants is satisfactory.

Bloemfontein, March 16—General Prettyman is succeeding admirably as military governor. A proclamation today guarantees Burghers payment for the property and arms confiscated. Roberts is reported as about to issue a fresh proclamation which is expected to have the effect of precluding further opposition on the part of the Free State. Reports are current here that President Steyn is ready to surrender.

Ryan Still Fights.

Norfolk, Va., March 15—Counsel for Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, appeared before Judge Waddell, in the United States court today and asked for the appointment of a special master in the Ryan-Williams Seaboard Air Line case, in support of plaintiff's allegation in bill asking for an injunction restraining the consolidation of the Seaboard Air Line system. By agreement George E Bowden, clerk of the court will be appointed.

Roberts Speaks to Guards.

London, March 16—Roberts made a quaint speech to guards today and expressed pride in their splendid march of thirty-eight miles in twenty-eight hours. Through a small mistake, he said, they have been unable to march into Bloemfontein at the head of the brigade as intended but "I promise you that I will lead you into Pretoria."

Dressed in Shamrock

London, March 16—The whole city will be dressed in shamrocks tomorrow. The queen's shamrock order has developed into a craze. A hundred bales of the plant has been sold at the convent garden.

LONDON IN CHARLOTTE.

Suit Against Gold Hill Mining Company at Salisbury.

Charlotte, N. C., March 16—Major H. A. London delivered a stirring address in the court house last night under the auspices of the white supremacy club of Mecklenburg.

Mr. London made the question of the amendment the keynote of his discourse. The wishes of the great majority of the white voters, said the speaker, are often annulled by the influence of a very few whites who have got control of the negro element in the state and to which small minority the negroes are as much slaves as they were to their owners before the war. The democrats for many years have made every effort possible to uplift the negro and yet for thirty-three years the negro has voted solidly against these white democrats. Now submission is a thing of the past and the democrats must hurl from power these few scheming white men who so thoroughly control the negro vote.

Speaking of the Confederate veterans Major London said that it was an insult to a veteran to be told by the opponents of the amendment that the democratic party would disfranchise him.

News reaches here that attachments have been issued against the Union Copper Mining Company and the Gold Hill Copper Mining Company, by Salisbury firms, for money owed them for supplies and tools which these companies have purchased. The companies are said to be behind about $100,000 in amounts due for outstanding debts to laborers and others.

Two new companies for Charlotte, filed articles of incorporation yesterday, the Southern Electric Company, and the Ried Brick Company, each with a capital stock of $25,000.

TWO BIG FIRES TODAY.

One in Connecteut and One in New York.

Fal's Village, Conn., March 16—The entire business portion of the town is ablaze and seems doomed. The local fire department is unable to cope with the conflagration. The flames are raging unchecked and threaten to devour the principal portion of the town. The aid summoned from Winstead will be scarcely able to reach here on account of the storm.

Utica, March 16—The Mohawk Valley hotel block was burned at four o'clock this morning. It contained five stores, the postoffice, a number of other offices, the opera house, and the Masonic hall. Nothing but the mail was saved. All town records, the Masonic records and charter, were burned. The losses are $100,000. There were forty boarders in the hotel, all of whom escaped.

The Land of the Guitar.

In Portugal men play upon the guitar as naturally as Yankees whistle. The peasants are universally given to the instrument, chiefly as an accompaniment to the voice. In towns and villages the artisans are often expert guitar players and walk in groups to and from their work, enlivening the journey with music and song. The carpenter who comes to your house to execute a small job brings his guitar with his tools, and the blacksmith is a far better performer on the guitar than the anvil.

When the Portuguese day laborer or workman has finished his long day's toil, he does not lie him to a wineshop to squander the few cents he has earned; he does not even lean against a post and smoke or whittle a stick while swapping yarns with his fellows. If he did not bring his guitar with him, he goes straight home and gets it, rests and comforts himself with the music while supper is being prepared. Afterward he spends the evening singing doggerel songs to a strumping accompaniment, tilted back in a chair against his own house or on the doorstep of a neighbor.—Philadelphia Record.

His Paraphrase.

"You often see the phrase 'Memphis, the Queen of the Valley, God bless her,'" remarked a newspaper man the other day. "The birth of that expression was the wherefore of one of the wittiest things Ned Carmack ever said.

"It was in the lifetime of The Appeal-Avalanche and while Mr. Carmack was editor of The Commercial. There was a municipal election of minor importance on hand, and the editor of The Avalanche was just 'happy' enough to do a two column editorial of gush concerning the life and death issues of the election under the sentimental headline 'Memphis, the Queen of the Valley, God Bless Her!'

"Mr. Carmack came out in the morning paper with no other comment on the all important subject under consideration than this epigram, which completely covered the case and made the phrase immortal. 'Blank, the fool of the Valley, God help him!'"—Memphis Scimitar.

At a Disadvantage.

A North Columbus woman has a charming little daughter who is very indiscreet. The other day in the midst of a reception the little girl cried on account of the toothache. Her mother tried to console her.

"There, my darling, don't cry. Your toothache will pass away."

"How will it go away?" replied little Edith, her voice broken with sobs. "I can't take my teeth out like you can, mamma."—Ohio State Journal.

Soap as a Germ Killer.

It has been shown by Koch and others that soap is a microbicide, or germ killer, and, according to Professor Serafini, soda or potash soap is quite a good disinfectant, not only because of the alkalis, but the combination itself. Heating the water favors the effect. Resinous soaps are not the best disinfectants. Marseilles soap is very good. A solution of 3 or 4 per cent kills the most resisting microbes.—Washington Times.

WILLIAM M'KINLEY.

In an editorial this morning, the Charlotte Observer says of William McKinley:

There is no reason to believe otherwise than that Mr. McKinley is an honest man, a good man, and that his promptings are right. He is a kindly man, too, a patriotic man, without malice or meanness, and he means well toward every part of the country. But he is lamentably lacking in resoluteness and is too easily influenced by his party friends. Few men who have ever occupied the presidential chair would have written to congress in December that it is "our plain duty" to grant free trade to Porto Rico, and in the March following turned tail and advocated a protective tariff for that island. Yet, notwithstanding that, the people admire, above all else, courage in a public man. Mr. McKinley is a successful politician. His indecision and pliableness are, however, great blemishes upon his character. If to his adroitness he added a high moral courage, he would be almost a great man; certainly at the present juncture an invincible one.

That is as concise a summing up of the character of Mr. McKinley as a proposition of Euclid. Yet there is nothing in it, unless a more certainty of his good intentions, than the country did not know or should have known, the day he was nominated. In fact, his nomination was largely due to his compromising character. His record was for silver, and he never came out for gold till the iron clad provision of the republican platform forced him to. The New York Sun, Mr. McKinley's most thick and thin supporter now, denounced him most vehemently every day for three months preceding his nomination, as a trimmer and wobbler. We have thought well of the president and have never taken stock in the abuses heaped upon him, but we cannot but wish that he had stood up more squarely for his opinions in the Porto Rico business. That his judgement was swamped by his party's supposed needs there is little doubt. The great point made by the democrats loomed up too big for the republicans to face: namely, that if the door is opened to Porto Rico it must be open to Luzon or any other place we might acquire, and there was too much thunder in this for the republican politicians to stand to the rack, hence they sacrificed the president, and he seemingly bowed his head with willingness for the yoke. The whole discussion was the opening of the great question as to whether our new possessions will be governed under the constitution or without by the will of congress only. No republican cared a rap whether Porto Rico has a tariff or not except for this question.

As Mr. McKinley is kindly and patriotic and prompted by good motives to attempt to be the president of the whole country, we honor him: as he cannot stand up agains the politicians, we commiserate him.

JUDGE SCHENCK'S HISTORY.

We are indebted to Judge D. Schenck for a copy of his history, North Carolina, 1780-81. Though this most excellent book has been in print for a decade we have never before had the pleasure of seeing a copy of it, and we fear that there are altogether too many North Carolinians who, like us, have not read the book, not for want of excellence of the work, but for the well known apathy of North Carolinians towards their state's history, for our people come up to but one section of the proposition that "Happy are that people who have a noble history and read it." The further title of this book is "A History of the Invasion of the Carolinas by the British army under Lord Cornwallis in 1780-81, With the Particular Design of Showing the Part Borne by North Carolina in that Struggle for Liberty and Independence, and to Correct Some of the Errors of History in Regard to that State and Its People."

The work, which occupied five good years of the author's life, is altogether a labor of love, undertaken "as a dutiful son of North Carolina" That the work was done effectually and for good, the testimony of capable judges have already amply testified. For this history, as well as for his untiring labors in locating and preserving the Guilford Court House battle ground, the people of North Carolina owe Judge Schenck a lasting debt of gratitude.

The democratic papers which are now copiously quoting the utterances of Benjamin Harrison on the Porto Rico tariff bill as the emanation of backbone and statesmanship, might recollect, if not inconvenient, the many cartoons of a few years ago portraying Benjamin as an insignificant and small occupant of his grandfather's capacious hat, and the universally repeated statement of democrats that his chief point of excellence was the fact that his father was the son of old Tippecanoe.

The fact that Col. Dockery's principal witness is in jail is said to have affected the election committee which is considering his contest, and will result in Mr. Bellamy's favor.—Charlotte News.

The untimely incarceration of this gentleman will certainly be set down by the patriots as another bold and bloody scheme to suppress human liberty.

RELIGION AND POLITICS.

Is There Such a Combination—Paul as a Politician.

Trojan in Charlotte Observer.

The Greensboro Telegram recently had quite an interesting and suggestive editorial, "Religion and Politics." It combatted the idea that there is no religion in politics; and asserted the doctrine, there is politics in religion In the latter statement is much truth The Apostle Paul declared that he was all things to all men that he might win some. That is politics, or politic, anyway. It is the same as honesty is the best policy. Paul was an honest man. The only politician of value is the one who is honest. Paul was a courteous man; that also, is politics, courtesy. He commands or exhorts men to be courteous. Paul differed or swim, live or perish, according to happy to stand before so sensible a man and speak concerning the things, whoreof he was charged of the Jews. He also differed with the Athenians, was his address to them on Mars Hill but a model of fair and courteous language. But in this day the culmination of political and religious intolerance is seen in those leaders of Church and State who nail every man not bowing to the boss. Yes, the Telegram man is right; there is politics i religion. No maxim of divine revelation is needed to clinch that conclusion. But is there any religion in politics? Well, may be so; a little occasionally; sometimes a convention is opened with prayer.

BELLAMY NEXT.

His Case Comes Up Next Week and May be Fatal.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, March 16—Senator Pritchard and Representative Linney, of North Carolina, who have been to Lyon, Massachusetts, for the purpose of attending the banquet of the republican club at that point have returned to Washington. Both gentlemen were much pleased with their reception at Lyon.

Most of the North Carolina delegation are now in Washington. The democratic members of the delegation will all be on hand whenever the house concludes to take up for consideration the case of Dockery against Bellamy, and it is supposed the republican members of the delegation will also be on hand. The case is likely to come up at any time, after next Monday. There is some prospect that it may be called up on Tuesday of next week. Mr. Bellamy is in Washington, and is confident that he will be permitted to retain his seat. Mr. Dockery, the contestant, is equally confident. Of course the seating recently of Messrs. Aldrich, of Alabama, and Wise, of Virginia, increases the republican majority in the house, which is now about fifteen, and makes it more difficult therefore for the democracy in the house to overcome the adverse vote. It is expected, however, that when the case is called up that there will be several republican members who will absent themselves from the house without pairing, taking this course, rather than going on record directly in favor of the retention of Mr. Bellamy in his seat. It is not believed that a single republican vote will be cast in the house directly for Mr. Bellamy, but if enough republicans can be brought to absent themselves, the result would be the same. It is this upon which Mr. Bellamy and his friends are basing their hopes principally. In any event the vote on his case will be one of the closest which has been cast in the house during the present session.

Adjutant General Royster has been in Washington several days, being here for the purpose of appearing before the house military committee in favor of an increase in the appropriation for the state militia. The amount desired is an increase from $400,000 to $2,000,000. In view of the fact that the house is cutting expenditures, although this increase is much desired by the state militia throughout the country, as well as in North Carolina, there is but little likelihood that the committee on military affairs will report the increase favorably.

R. L. Stroud, of Chapel Hill, is among prominent gentlemen in Washington from the state. He is here on some business before congress in which he is interested, and called at the capitol to see Senator Butler and Congressman Atwater. Mr. Stroud is a relative of Ex-Representative Stroud, whose home is also at Chapel Hill.

Admiral Dewey and wife will be entertained at Savannah next week. They may go as far south as Florida. It is probable they will visit Jacksonville. At the Savannah reception Senator Daniel, of Virginia, will be present and will deliver an address.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRAH—DISEASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucuous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

SAYS SHE IS COMING

An Editor Who Does not Cast Pearls Before Gazelles.

Charity and Children.

In fact she is here already. And her tribe will constantly increase. The Baptist and Presbyterian churches are making a feeble resistance, but even there she is making her presence felt in public meeting. The North has long laughed at us for our "provincial" and "antiquated" notions of the rights of women, and the leaven they put in the meal is working its way down South. Many of our southern female colleges are emphasizing the importance of making young women "independent." That is, they are changing the ivy into the oak. They ridicule the idea of women clinging to men. They tell the girls they should be able to look out for themselves and be able by reason of their own ability to snap their fingers in the faces of the lords of creation. Then our women are flocking together more and more in our religious meetings. At the association and at the convention it is becoming the custom for the men to be in one place discussing the subjects before the body, and the women in another place doing the same thing. So far the brethren and sisters meet together at the night sessions and the former have the floor, but it seems likely that before long the sisters will be holding their own night sessions too, and listening to star speakers from abroad. After awhile somebody will raise the question as to the wisdom of the separation and the two bodies will come together and share the honors of the platform equally. It begins to look that way, and no man can tell what changes in public sentiment ten years will bring. We have tried to express no opinion either for or against this tendency. We have a very decided opinion, however, but we are not going to cast pearls before gazelles. We are simply recording the growth of a sentiment which is gaining force day by day. Who knows but that we may soon get beyond Paul, as congress seems to have done by the constitution.

"See here," yelled the theatrical manager, "you call this play a rural drama, don't you?" "I do," replied the modest author. "And you claim to be a realist?" Well, I've introduced the old oaken bucket and the barnyard fowls and all that." "But where's the mortgage?" he shrieked; "who ever heard of a farm-house without a mortgage that the wayward son comes home and lifts off in the last act?"

Mrs. Calvin Zimmerman, Milesburg, Pa., says: "As a speedy cure for coughs, colds, croup and sore throat One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled. It is pleasant for children to take. I heartily recommend it to mothers." It is the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It cures bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

LORD SALISBURY'S REPLY.

Balfour States it in the House of Commons Amid Cheers.

London, March 15—In the house of commons today replying to Mr. William Redmond, Irish nationalist, who asked whether the goverment of the United States had offered its good offices to her majesty's government with the view of bringing about peace in South Africa, the government leader, Mr. Balfour, said her majesty's government would not accept the intervention of my power in the settlement of South African affairs.

Mr. Balfour's reading of Mr. Hay's dispatch conveying the intervention requested, aroused cheers from the Irish members.

Continuing Mr. Balfour said:

"Lord Salisbury requested Mr. White to convey the sincere acknowledgement of her majesty's goverrment to the government of the United States for the friendly tone of their communication and to say that her majesty's government does not propose to accept the intervention of any power in the settlement of South African affairs."

Loud and prolonged cheers followed the statement.

It is not only beautiful women who hang over the mirror in the morning. Anxious women who are watching the wasting of their beauty, stand before the mirror and note the increasing lines etched by pain about the mouth and eyes. Thousands of such women, wrecked in body and in disposition, haggard, nervous, irritable, cross, have by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription been entirely cured, and watched with delight the progress of the cure, marked by brightening eyes, reddening cheeks, and rounding form.

Woman's general health depends largely upon the local health of the organs distinctively feminine. Irregular periods in maidenhood, followed after marriage by debilitating drains, and the common consequences of motherhood, inflammation, ulceration, and displaced organs, ruin the general health. These conditions are entirely removed by "Favorite Prescription," the body blossoms in a new beauty, and the mind is entirely freed from gloom and despondency. "Favorite Prescription" is not a stimulant, containing no alcohol or whisky.

"In October 1898 I gave birth to a baby and the treatment I received at the hands of the midwife left me with female weakness," writes Mrs. Cordelia Henson, of Coalton, Boyd Co., Ky. "I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I had three miscarriages so I found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and aches my life was a burden to me and also to all the family, for I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Just after my last miscarriage (in 1896) I was taken with a severe pain in left side. Had four doctors come to see me but at last I found I was slowly dying. The doctors said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in bed for months and when I did get up I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, 'Favorite Prescription,' and 'Pellets,' and ever since then I have been a well woman. At my monthly period now, I have no pain. My cheeks are red and my face is white, but before it was as yellow as saffron."

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

SCROFULA AND ITS AWFUL HORRORS

—CURED BY—

QUART BOTTLES.

A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Grand Old Lady Gives Her Experience.

Mrs. Thankful Orilla Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the great war, in Hebron, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more marvelous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cursed and is cursing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or goitre, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. I was in a miserable condition, I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abcesses were beginning to form. At length was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and his famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, and I have never been troubled with scrofula since. Of course an old lady of 83 years is not a young woman, but I have had remarkably good health since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not lok to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

WELL DRESSED MEN.

ORDER OF THE CITIES IN WHICH THEY MOST ABOUND.

An Expert Says Denver Heads the List, With San Francisco Second, Chicago Third, Washington Fourth, and New York Trails Along Fifth.

"I'd probably be discharged, mobbed and have all sorts of things happen to me if I said this over in the big town, but I can name you at least four American cities the men of which are better dressed year in and year out than the men of New York," said a man who travels for a New York merchant tailor's supply house and whose territory is the whole continent. "I'll name them in the order of their standing as communities inhabited by the best dressed men: Denver, San Francisco, Chicago and Washington. How do I figure it? Just according to the rule of sight, that's all. I don't profess to know much about Egyptology, but I do know a well dressed man when I see him.

"Mind, I don't say that all of the men of those four cities are better dressed than all of the men of New York, but I do maintain and say any impartial man who knows the four towns mentioned as they are now will uphold me in maintaining that in ratio to their respective populations the men of Denver, San Francisco, Chicago and Washington are very much better dressed than are the men of New York. Of course this has been the case only in very recent years. New York was until, say, five years ago away ahead of all its rivals as a city of the best dressed men. At that time if you wanted to see hundreds of perfectly dressed and perfectly groomed men engaged in doing business all you had to do was to take an elevated train up town in the neighborhood of 10 o'clock in the morning and watch the men, young, middle aged and old, who boarded the train for the down town financial district.

"Of course you'll still see slews of thoroughly got up men down in the financial district of New York, but not so many by 75 per cent as formerly. On show occasions, such as Easter Sunday afternoon, New York will still turn out a finely clad batch of men, but I'm not talking about show occasions now. I'm talking about men who are well clad year in and year out, and it is in this respect that New York has fallen into the 'also ran' list.

"When you meet up town in New York a genuinely swagger man—not a flashily dressed man, but one who is thoroughly and properly rigged out from his hat to his shoes—you are liable to turn around to get a rear view of him, and then the fact is liable to be slowly borne in upon you that he is some member of a theatrical profession whom you have seen upon the stage. There are still plenty of flashily dressed men circulating around New York, but a flashily dressed man never will be a well dressed man.

"The reason why the men of Denver are such a well dressed lot isn't entirely clear to me. It can't be especially because there are so many well off men in that town, because there are myriads of well off men in New York. Maybe it is because, in proportion to the population, there are probably more men with large incomes in Denver than in any city on the continent, not excepting Helena, that used to bear that distinction. You scarcely ever see a badly dressed or an overdressed man in Denver. Shabby men there are in plenty, of course, but I don't call a shabby man a badly dressed man. A badly dressed man is one who, while having plenty of means to equip himself with a good make up, hasn't the taste to do it and therefore makes his appearance as a slouch—that's the word for it—slouch. A shabby man is simply a man who is on his uppers and makes no pretensions.

"The clerks and other men of very moderate incomes in Denver, men who can't afford to 'keep in the push' as far as correct dressing goes, don't make any effort whatever to tog themselves out in cheap, dismal imitation of the men with plenty of money; but, like the young woman in the song, 'they always dress in black.' The business men who run plants of their own, however, seem to pay just as much attention to the job of getting themselves ready for business on weekday mornings as they do to the task of arraying themselves for social functions or evening appearances.

"Easterners who have gone out to the coast have often commented upon the swellness of the average well fixed San Francisco man in the matter of clothes. The San Francisco man with an income certainly gets himself up 'proper,' as we say, and he's got the right kind of a make up for every occasion. Take the race tracks around San Francisco, for example. Every man who goes to the races out there goes in a regular racing rig, from paddock coat to fieldglass and from the top of his flat crowned derby to the soles of his 'downs' boots, and so do the Frisco women, for the matter of that. Another thing, I'll venture to assert that nine out of ten men in San Francisco whose incomes are $2,000 a year or over rig out in evening clothes every night in the year, summer included. A great many more men of moderate incomes in Washington don evening clothes than men of similar incomes in New York. The men of Washington dress with singular neatness, many with notable elegance. The excellence of the Washington average, I suppose, is to be accounted for by the absence of a large laboring class here."—Washington Post.

are responsible for dry, scrawny and variable colored hair. Many people have a goodly supply of hair, and it would be beautiful were it not that dandruff had destroyed its life and made it lustreless. Everyone's head should be shampooed once a week with some non-injurious and health-giving wash.

Foul-Smelling Catarrh.

Catarrh is one of the most obstinate diseases, and hence the most difficult to get rid of.

There is but one way to cure it. The disease is in the blood, and all the sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures in the world can have no permanent effect whatever upon it. Swift's Specific cures Catarrh permanently, for it is the only remedy which can reach the disease and force it from the blood.

Mr. B. P. McAllister, of Hardsburg, Ky., had Catarrh for years. He writes: "I could see no improvement whatever, though I was constantly treated with sprays and washes, and different inhaling remedies—in fact, I could feel that each winter I was worse than the year previous. "Finally it was brought to my notice that Catarrh was a blood disease, and after thinking over the matter, I saw it was unreasonable to expect to be cured by remedies which only reached the surface. I then decided to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles were used, I noticed a perceptible improvement. Continuing the remedy, the disease was forced out of my system, and a complete cure was the result. I advise all who have this dreadful disease to abandon their local treatment, which has never done them any good, and take S. S. S., a remedy that can reach the disease and cure it."

To continue the wrong treatment for Catarrh is to continue to suffer. Swift's Specific is a real blood remedy, and cures obstinate, deep-seated diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It promptly reaches Catarrh, and never fails to cure even the most aggravated cases.

S.S.S. For The Blood

is Purely Vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no dangerous minerals.

Caught cold—the man arrested for stealing ice.

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remdy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold, which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—B. S. Edwards, publisher of the Review, Wyant, Ill. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

According to the barber the man who shaves himself has a hard cheek.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinsdale, Ill., writes: "I never fail to relieve my children of croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases." Howard Gardner.

There is always some hope for the fellow who admits he doesn't know it all.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

J. I. Bevry Loganton, Pa., writes I am willing to take my oath I that was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure entirely after doctors failed. It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

Do They Read 'Em.

Parties who are skeptical about whether or not people read the advertisements, may get an eye opener from this. Yesterday a gentleman put a penny ad in this paper, and this morning a man was standing at his door when he came down to open up ready to answer it. Before ten o'clock there were a half dozen responses the ad was inserted for an indefinite period, but this message has been received: "Run my ad only one more time and then take it out."

They do read 'em.

Recital Last Night.

Notwithstanding the extremely bad weather a good sized audience gathered at the First Presbyterian church last night to hear the organ recital by Mr. J. H. Craighill, of Charlotte There was a number of vocal members on the programme, but these were omitted on account of the absence of the most of the participants. Mr. W. S. Moore made three impromptu talks, short and to the point. Had the weather been good the house would have been filled. Those who were there were repaid for the going. Mr. Craighill is certainly a master of the organ and seems to get all the melody there is in the instrument out of it. The committee hopes to have another recital in the near future by Mr. Craighill.

Alden Benedict's "Quo Vadis."

The history of the stage has not recorded the production of a play equal in religious motive to that of Chas. W. Chase's dramatization of "Quo Vadis." with the single exception of the "Passion Play," which in the judgment of many christians is too sacred for stage impersonation. No such sacrilege is attempted in "Quo Vadis," although the scenes and varied incidents take place shortly after the death of the Divine Master, and one of the principal characters in the play is that of the Apostle Peter, simple, aged and venerable, telling of his association with Christ, discoursing upon his patience, suffering and humility, and creating an atmosphere of sublimity, never before realized upon any stage, and entirely without the slightest suggestion of profanation. In fact it may be said that both audience and actors during the representation of this wonderful play, seem to be permeated with a deep religious fervor, so strong, so vital that these stage pictures of the struggle of the early christians must live as an instrument of good. If more such plays were presented it would be better for the stage in particular, and for the world at large. "Quo Vadis" will endure as a classic for all time, for aside for its strong religious temperament, it is one of the most moral, dramatic and interesting plays ever produced upon any stage. At the academy of music Monday night next.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

E. M. Caldcleugh & Bro. have the largest stock of china, crockery glassware and lambs in the state and it always at their store.

The Chas. Heiser line of men's shoes is now carried by Thacker & Brockmann and they want you to call and inspect them the next time you need a pair.

Ladies clean your kid gloves with LaBelle glove cleaner. It is not a liquid, leaves no odor and can be used while the glove is on the hand. For sale only by Grissom & Fordham, druggists. 3m.

S. J. Kaufmann has returned from the northern cities, where he purchased a large stock of shoes and men's furnishings. Kaufmann's success has been assured from the start—he knows his business. His first act was to buy space in the Telegram on coming to Greenboro and he has seen results. He is now making a special sale of winter weights at prices that will move them. They must go to make room for the new spring goods now arriving.

Killed a White Man.

Sheriff Dorsett, of Davidson county, was here this morning with a colored prisoner, Rob Ferrabee, for the penitentiary. Ferrabee goes up for one year, for the killing of Chas McBryde, a white man, about two months ago. He was tried at Lexington superior court last week before Judge Timberlake. Considering the nature of the offence the sentence is unusually light, but it is said the killing was done in self defense, and is therefore mighty close to justifiable homicide.

THE "DAILY VAXINE VIRUS."

A FUNNY BUT DANGEROUS SHEET AT REIDSVILLE.

A Lambasting Paper That Pokes All Manner of Fun at the Authorities of the Town.

There comes through the mail to the Telegram a copy of a four column poster issued at Reidsville, headed thus: "Daily Vaxine Virus;" Largest circulation of any smallpox daily in town; subscription books open to all; volumn one, number 8,000; Reidsville, N. C., March 13, 5 p. m., 1900.

Of course this is the work of some persons who profess to disbelieve the existence of smallpox in Reidsville, and are trying to ridicule the persons who realize the danger and are trying to control it. There is, to be sure, some fun in this yellow poster, but it is trifling with so serious a subject, and is so cheap an attempt to satirize a very vital condition of affairs in that town that it stamps the unknown authors of it as either very ignorant or very malicious. We quote quite a number of paragraphs from the sheet because, despite the seriousness of the thing, there is some fun in it. Here are some.

SOCIAL ITEMS.

Use wine of arsenic and die happy; only sure cure for blue-bonnet plague. Relief in ten minutes.

The progressive euchre club of Vaxivi Infecta hotels, will give a reception on Monday next to the visiting ladies at Varioloidville, Law avenue.

We learn that they will be at home after April fool, and will assume control of the new brick winter resort known as Contagious Inn; rates, two dollars per day and up. We wish them many cases.

Married March 31st at 2:30 a. m., Miss Variola Small to Major Minimum Rox at virus cottage, twenty-third street, city. A strictly military affair.

The chief of police, assisted by a health officer, led a lovely german at vaxine pavillion on main street last night, introducing many new and lovely figures. But as pleasure became contagious, the dance had to be fumigated much to the regret of all at three a. m.

Two new health officers were installed last night at the cantata. Their robes were of pink crepe de soire, with creosote effects and blue mass frills, ruffles of dark iodine accordian plaited.

The guests at mount view pest house gave a small german on Wednesday night in honor of new arrivals.

EDITORIAL.

Terms of subscription $8 per year, payable after the smallpox fakels buried. Published every day except Friday. Col. F. U. Migate, editor; Reverend Nux Vomica, D. D., city editor.

It is a great pleasure for tax payers to know that, at an early date, taxes will be doubled. They will cheerfully pay them when they realize that the efficient services of health officers and chief of police carefully protect thier real estate from trespassers and smallpox.

The recent action of our city fathers in releasing the three hundred suspects from jail and allowing them to go about town, is to be severely criticized. The mayor admits now, much to his remorse, that they had been vaxinated only thirteen times each and that they took on an average only eighteen times each.

By a vote of city council 7 to 2, an ordinance to force all mail trains, having engines unvaxinated, to go round instead of through the city, unless holding health certificates signed by the president of the national hobo associatiation. Female trains to be taxed $3. This is a good law and one similar was passed in 1520 in the city of Wentworth; although street cars were exempted.

DARK TOWN NEWS.

As all readers must know the residents of Dark Town were fumigated all Saturday night, several escaped for the time but have since died. Fumigation is fatal to some people. The drug used was sulphuretted hydrogen, a pleasant and effective anti-septic.

John Koon was vaxinated but he did take as easily as he took three hens from the pest house poultry yard.

The farms belonging to Dark Town pest house are excellent. Crops good. Bugs destroyed the 1st crop of potatoes and it is feared are lurking in the vicinity for the second crop. Five large ones held up a merchant, stole his ledger and learned who had bought seed potatoes for next year. No clue has been found. The Dark Town police are on the lookout. Some think these bugs spread small pox. Several are dead and present a pitiful appearance.

GENERAL ITEMS.

The electric light plant has been quarantined, and no lights will be allowed to come in town after night. All mails and females will be disinfected before being put off the train here.

The state board of health attended the doctors' love feast last night Several doctors broke out with bad feeling during the feast.

All persons are hereby prohibited by the mayor from wearing warts or other eruptions as it causes bad feeling. A tax of $5.00 for each wart has been imposed.

Up to last night there were only 3 horses and eight dogs unvaxinated.

Until further notice, no water will be permitted to come in or go out of the water tower, as vaxination has not yet taken on the main, and it has no health certificate, and a detail has been placed at the tower.

BROWN'S

Next to the Consumer

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
